BSRC BYLAWS

PART I

Purpose

The Batawa Ski Racing Club is a non-profit organization designed to encourage Alpine Ski Racing in the youth of the Bay of Quinte Region and beyond. We endeavour to promote the physical, moral, mental, and social development of youth by providing the means through which each individual can receive education and instruction in Alpine Ski Racing.

The organization is committed to the implementation of high calibre alpine racing programs in the Bay of Quinte region.

Our Mission;

To develop a sense of fair play, honest competition and true sportsmanship, with no discrimination while providing alpine ski racers of all levels of ability the opportunities to develop their full potential as athletes and active members of our community.

Our Values;

- We believe in the educational value of competition as a means of acquiring life skills.
- We believe in the enjoyment of skiing through fun and competition in either an individual and/or team format.
- We support the aspirations of our skiers who make it to the top echelons of ski racing.
- We consider safety of prime importance in the conduct of our race program.
- We respect the diversity of racers, including their age, and level of ability.
- We believe in making ski racing accessible through timely information and cost-effective programs.
- We strive to provide a safe and inclusive environment for all athletes.

Guiding Principles;

- We promote the concept of a strong club within a solid structure.
- We coordinate the collective regional effort for the most effective and efficient implementation of alpine ski racing programs.
- We cooperate with other ski organizations that share our mission and values.
- We manage the Club with openness and integrity, and we are accountable to all members.
- We sponsor or conduct coaching clinics and competitions.
- We adhere to a BSRC Code of Conduct which is applicable to all athletes, parents/guardians/extended families, coaches, officials and volunteers.

PART II

Formalities

Head Office:

The head office of the Batawa Ski Racing Club ("BSRC") shall be located at the City of Quinte West, in the County of Hastings, Province of Ontario or as determined by the Board.

PART III

Membership

Ordinary Members:

Each racer, who has registered and paid the annual fees, is an Ordinary Member of the Batawa Ski Race Club (BSRC) and is entitled to one (1) vote.

Each ordinary member, who has not reached the age of majority, shall assign their voting privileges to their parent or guardian.

A parent or guardian may vote at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) on behalf of their racer.

Honorary Members:

An Honorary Member is any person who is admitted by resolution of the Board of Directors as an Honorary Member.

Honorary members may be admitted for a time period determined by the Board detailed in the resolution.

Honorary members are not entitled to vote at any meeting of the Members of the Club.

Coaches:

All active coaches are members of the BSRC. Coaches are entitled to vote if they do not have a child registered with BSRC.

Voting Rights:

No Proxy votes shall be allowed.

Membership Dues:

The Board of Directors shall set the annual membership dues for ordinary members. Membership dues, due dates and late fees are established by the Board by resolution.

There shall be no fees for Honorary Members.

Resignation of Membership:

A member must give written notice of the resignation to the Coach or Secretary. The Board shall accept the member's resignation at the next Board meeting following the receiving of the notice.

A resignation is effective on acceptance by the Board.

Non-payment of annual dues constitutes deemed resignation and does not require board acceptance.

Any resignation of a member will result in the member forfeiting all current dues paid to the BSRC.

Revocation of Membership:

The Head Coach may, upon investigation, impose an interim suspension for breach of any, but not limited to, the items listed below.

The Board shall be convened within 7 days to review the suspension and make a decision.

A member under suspension may not take part in any of the Club's activities.

1. Failure to register with the appropriate insuring body.
2. Engaging in behavior that puts self and or others at risk.
3. Engaging in illegal acts while representing the BSRC.
4. Failure to abide by the BSRC Code of Conduct and Expectations.

PART IV

Board of Directors:

Any ordinary member in good standing who is/has reached the age of majority may run for a position on the Board of Directors or, a Parent or Guardian of an Ordinary Member who is in good standing may run for a position on the Board of Directors.

A Director who ceases to be a member ceases to be a Director.

Number and Quorum of Directors:

The Board of Directors may consist of up to nine (9) Directors plus one ex officio director.

A quorum of the Board shall be five (5) of the Directors.

Removal of Directors:

A Director who is absent for three (3) consecutive meetings is deemed to have resigned as a Director unless he / she has a valid reason acceptable to a majority of the other Directors.

Failure to abide by the BSRC Code of Conduct and Expectations

Ex Officio Director:

The Head Coach shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at the first Meeting of the Board after the Annual General Meeting.

Election of Board:

The election shall be by ballot.

The election process will be facilitated by a board member not being re-elected.

Members shall be elected by a simple majority.

Nominations for the Board shall be made at the Annual General meeting.

Nominations will be accepted from the floor with a written or verbal consent of the nominee.

In the event of a tie, another ballot shall be cast.

Vote counting shall take place at the Annual General meeting with the current Chairperson appointing a person(s) to count the ballots.

If there is only one nominee for a given position, the Secretary shall cast one ballot for that nominee to be elected.

At each Annual General meeting the general membership shall elect the available board positions.

Elected and appointed positions shall be for a two (2) year term.

An elected Director holds office until the annual meeting 2 years after the day they were elected or until a successor is elected.

A Director is eligible for re-election if he or she remains qualified.

Quorum:

Meetings of the Board of Directors require a Quorum of five (5) Directors.

Regular Board Meetings:

The Board shall hold a minimum of 6 regular business meetings within the year term.

The Board may hold its meetings at an agreed upon location, at the discretion of the Chair provided the meetings are always held in Ontario.

The Board may hold meetings by telephone or other means of electronic communication so long as formal meeting minutes of the meeting are kept and approved as minutes.

Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairperson, or the combination of the Vice Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer, on the request of any three Directors.

Notice of such a meeting shall be communicated to each Director personally or by telephone, e-mail, mail or hand delivery at least two (2) days before the meeting.

The Board may permit any person to make deputation at any Meeting of the Board of Directors. Any person requesting to give a deputation shall provide a synopsis to the Secretary at least 3 days in advance of the scheduled meeting.

The Board may invite any person to make a deputation at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

No person other than elected or appointed directors is entitled to vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Any delegation shall be excused for purposes of voting on the motion presented by the delegation.

Voting:

A simple majority of votes cast suffices to pass any motion before the Directors. Voting shall be by show of hands, or by ballot at the call of the Chair.

The Chairperson may vote on any question. In case of a tie vote, the resolution is defeated.

Officers by Board of Directors:

The Directors of the Board shall elect from amongst themselves, a Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Powers of the Board:

The Directors shall administer and run the Club's business. They may enter into contracts, on behalf of the Club, and do any other acts authorized by its bylaws.

The acts of a Director are valid even if a defect in his/ her appointment or qualification is discovered afterwards.

Resolutions:

The Board shall carry on its business by resolution(s) moved, seconded and carried by a majority of the votes cast.

The Chairperson shall count the votes on a resolution and declare it carried or defeated. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the minutes including all resolutions passed. A declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has passed, and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be admissible in evidence as proof that the resolution has passed.
